

Druk Path Trek

<http://tmg2.mokshaclients.com/packages/druk-path-trek/>

Trips Facts

- Trip Code:TMG-DT100
- Group Size:1-15 px
- Included Meals:
- Trip Mode:
- Elevation:4235m
- Accomodation:hotel
- Transport:Only ground transport
- Start Point:Paro
- End Point:Thimpu
- Best Season:March, April, May, September, October, November

Trip Highlights

- A short trekking routes through the Bhutan beautiful mountains
- Explore the culture and lifestyles of Bhutanese
- Famous cultural highlights; Paro Dzong and Thimpu's Memorial Chorten
- A very famous, 'Tiger's Nest Monastery'

The six day trek is the most popular trek in the country as it passes through a gorgeous natural landscape of blue pine forests, high ridges and pristine lakes while at the same time offering the opportunity to visit some ancient lhakhangs, dzongs and villages.

The Druk Path Trek is also a fairly easy hike to undertake as the distances between rest camps is fairly short. The trail takes you through forests of fir, blue pine and dwarf rhododendrons at altitudes ranging between 2400-4200 m. On the third day hikers will arrive at Jimiling Lake, whose crystal clear waters are home to gigantic trout. This trek also offers hikers stunning views of Mt. Gangkar Puensum, the highest unscaled peak in the world.

Outline Itinerary & Maps

- Day 01: Arrival at Paro Airport (2,280m)

Day 01: Arrival at Paro Airport (2,280m)

- Day 02: Paro - Jili Dzong

Day 02: Paro - Jili Dzong

- Day 03: Jili Dzong – Jangchulakha

Distance 10 km, 4-5 hours, 310 m ascent, 50 m descent, camp altitude 3,770 m.

- Day 04: Jangchulakha – Jimgelang Tsho

Distance 11 km, 4 hours, 230 m descent, 330 m ascent, camp altitude 3,870 m

- Day 05: Jimgelang Tsho – Simkotra Tsho

Distance 11 km, 4 hours, 820 m ascent, 400 m descent, camp altitude 4,110 m

- Day 06: Simkotra Tsho – Phajoding

Distance 10 km, 3-4 hours, 130 m ascent, 680 m descent, camp altitude 3,750 m

- Day 07: Phajodhing – Mothitang

Day 07: Phajodhing – Mothitang

- Day 08: The Druk Path finishes at the Bhutan Broadcast Service (BBS) Telecommunication Tower, offering great view of the city of Thimphu.

Day 08: The Druk Path finishes at the Bhutan Broadcast Service (BBS) Telecommunication Tower, offering great view of the city of Thimphu.